OUR SPONSORS

Facultad de Economía at Universidad del Pacífico. La Facultad de Economía en la Universidad del Pacífico es una de las más importantes en América Latina y ha sido clave en el desarrollo del Perú de los últimos 50 años. Sus egresados han sido y son protagonistas del fortalecimiento del sector público y privado, desde donde impulsan e implementan una serie de iniciativas de desarrollo para el país.

Departamento de Ciencias Sociales y Políticas (DACSP) de Universidad del Pacífico. El DACSP tiene como principal propósito contribuir con la formación de ciudadanos responsables y de alta calidad profesional. Para lograr esto, nuestros profesores estimulan entre los estudiantes una perspectiva de análisis crítico sobre los fenómenos sociales, culturales y políticos contemporáneos del Perú y el mundo, y organizan seminarios, conferencias y debates sobre asuntos de relevancia nacional e internacional.

Center for Inter-American Policy and Research (CIPR) at Tulane. CIPR is devoted to inter-hemispheric exchanges that will advance the production and dissemination of knowledge about critical policy issues facing the Americas as well as the deepening of academic research in these areas. Its aim is to stimulate contact between scholars and decision-makers working on the region at different locations and in different languages, enriching their production by enabling the confluence of multiple perspectives.

The Millennium Nucleus for the Study of Stateness and Democracy in Latin America. Founded in 2011, the Nucleus is one of nine social science Nuclei sponsored by the Chilean Ministry of Economy, Development, and Tourism. It seeks to analyze the degree, type, and subnational distribution of state institutional quality in Latin America. The project aims to identify what conditions foment weak states and the effects of weak and unequally distributed stateness on political regime quality and the provision of public goods.

MIT Sloan Latin America Office. Located in Santiago, Chile, the mission of the MIT Sloan Latin America office is to develop and nurture meaningful activities throughout Latin America that benefits the region, the School and the Institute, and supports the advancement of management education and practice. This will be accomplished by enhancing admissions activities, providing new opportunities for Action Learning for MIT students, support increased research for faculty and students, and prompt the activities of MIT throughout the region.
